Father's Day and Overview for June

God has really blessed us this year and we are so grateful to Him for His loving kindness, care, mercy and grace. We have an awesome Heavenly Father who guides and gives us direction in the way we should go.

Father's Day is June 16. It's a special day for our children and grandchildren to honor their fathers and thank God if their father is in an active role member in their life. It's very tough on kids growing up without a father figure in their family. In some families, grandfather steps in to fill the need for a father when there isn't one. As grandparents we need to stay close to our Heavenly Father so we can be an example of God's love and care for His children. God has blessed us with twenty grandchildren. They especially like begging to be able to go with grandfather to get ice-cream!

My own grandfather, whom I love, encouraged me to use my musical talents for the Lord as I grew up. So I always sang in the choir both in church and school. I learned to play the piano for two different churches where my father was the pastor. Grandparents are very important in the lives of children.

We are continuing to study God's word in the Old Testament books in our Sunday school class. Please join us each Sunday morning

Be saving your money for our October train trip from Springdale to Van Buren, Arkansas.

Benefits of Sunday School

If Sunday School did not exist, would we reinvent it? Yes we would! Here are two reasons to keep Sunday School:

Sunday school provides a structure for teaching God's Word. Preaching isn't enough. A systematic teaching of the Scriptures – not just preaching. Acts 5:42 needs to occur through all age levels. Children, youth, and adults need opportunities for discovery, review, and interaction as they study God's principles. Sunday school meets needs!

Sunday school organizes the church into caring groups. The teacher becomes a shepherd for the class, an extension of the pastor's ministry. Where the pastor finds it impossible to know all the needs of the congregation, Sunday school teachers (shepherds) know when someone is absent or hurting and can express love personally.

Scripture of the Month

For so the Lord said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. Isaiah 18:4

Children's Humor

A little girl became restless as the preacher's sermon dragged on and on. Finally, she leaned over to her mother and whispered, "Mommy, if we give him the money now, will he let us go?"

Dear Lord: Thank you for the nice day today. You even fooled the TV weather man. Hank, 7

My son Logan started Sunday School at eighteen months, and he liked to go to God's house. One day he told me proudly that he knew where God lived - he lived in the walls. Obviously, if it was God's house but we never saw him. JavaCasa.com

When the Pastor challenged us to integrate prayer into our daily lives, I think he had more in mind than, "God help us!...Not peas again!"
